Halloween Costumes

As usual, students are asked not to wear Halloween costumes to school. There is already plenty of excitement in our days. Costumes, although fun, can cause additional distraction and stress. Thanks for leaving costumes at home! Contact

Welcome Back, Danielle!

Danielle Ainson, a former River Otter teacher, is rejoining the staff as our new Associate Teacher! She will be with us on Mondays through Thursdays, all day. Stop by and say Hi :)

Counselor's Corner

October is Bullying Awareness and Prevention month. As much as we'd like to claim that bullying doesn't happen at Springwater, it can and does happen, even at our school. For more information about what bullying is, what it isn't, and what we all can do to prevent it, check out these online resources pending link from Marj

Teachers and staff will be rolling out bullying awareness information - for both students and parents - in the near future.

Coffee Talk Friday

Gather as a community November 2nd at 8:15 am to talk about school efforts to create a safe, welcoming environment. School leadership will share information about current initiatives and gather parent input.

Enrichment Help

One-time coverage is needed for an Enrichment class this Friday at 2:30! Emese and her group of students are making the costume and set design for the play that Hannah's class is writing. We will have staff supervising but would appreciate some extra hands with having them finish painting the backdrop. Contact heidi@springwaterschool.com

Lunch Help

Thank you to the few lunch helpers who've been coming in to set up, wipe down, and put away tables at lunchtime. Your help keeps administrative staff from filling in on these necessary tasks, and focused on student learning. If you have an hour once a week to drop in and help with lunch, additional hands would be greatly appreciated! Sign up on the front page of website springwaterschool.com
